It sounds like you're referring to an upcoming event or conference, possibly related to biotechnology or a similar field. If you're planning to host or attend the BIO (Biotechnology Innovation Organization) event, it typically involves discussions on the latest advancements, networking opportunities, and industry insights. To ensure a successful experience, consider preparing by reviewing the event's schedule, familiarizing yourself with the speakers, and identifying key sessions that align with your interests or professional goals. Engaging with fellow attendees and participating in interactive sessions can also enhance your experience and provide valuable connections within the industry. If you need more specific information about the event location or details, please feel free to ask!

About	Hobbies

1. What is your experience with similar websites/apps?

-My experience has been with business websites for companies and individuals, but I mainly use pages like LinkedIn, Instagram, and Facebook

2. What do you find most frustrating about them?

-Poor mobile optimization, when something that could be reformatted asks you to open up a desktop browser

3. What features would you find most useful?

-Content on the website being separated into categories, well organized, and without having to click through ads to read an entire article.

4. How often would you use a tool like this?

-I have used similar websites in college, probably pretty frequently

5. What's your preferred way of navigating an interface?

-Through a mobile app or website

6. Are you more drawn to bright or minimal designs?

-Minimal designs where bright or important content can be highlighted or focused

7. What kind of content would you want to see first?

-Highlights on professional accomplishments, certifications, and goals

8. What device do you usually use?

-Apple iPhone 12, Desktop PC

9. How important is accessibility for you?

-Very important for readability, but also for people that don't have easy access to webpages or trouble reading based on things like colorblindness.

10. Any websites you love using? Why?

I like using Instagram and TikTok to keep up with my friends and what they're doing with their lives or things that they are interested in. I have a lot of friends and family that are separated throughout the country/world, and I believe it's important to stay connected.

Ryan Everson was born on March 14 1993, in Colorado Springs. He is a military child with three other siblings. A brother, and two sisters. His father being Air Force for about 20 years. He moved to Bellevue Nebraska at around the age of 8 years old. He first attended Wake Robin elementary school, then attended Mission Middle school. He then moved up to Bellevue East High school. That is when I met him and he became one of my best friends. After high school he went to the University of South Dakota in 2012 and graduated with two degrees in 2017. The degrees are a bachelors in Psychology and, a bachelors in Biology and a minor in Spanish. His journey then took him to work as freelance social media consultant for Red Steakhouse in Vermillion, SD. From there he moved Portland Oregon and worked as an Assistant Manager in sales. Having worked there for 2 years he decided to move back to Nebraska achieving higher employment opportunities. Upon returning he started working as a Senior recruiter, which marks the beginning journey of senior in the business sector. He then moved to another position as a nursing recruiter for a couple of months before landing his current position. An operations lead in Papillion Nebraska. He enjoys playing video games, and consuming movies and other forms of entertainment, in that nature. Ryan is a dedicated hard-working individual who enjoys the little things in life. His passion and dedication translate into his philanthropism and mindset of wanting to modern and future endeavors to positively impact people.
